SUMMER COURSES

SPANISH AS A FOREIGN LANGUAGE

From 3 June to 20 September 2024

Spanish Intensive Summer Programme

The summer courses at the Centre d'Idiomes of the University of Valencia are aimed at all those who wish to start, expand or perfect their knowledge of the Spanish language and culture. All courses follow the specifications of the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages and classes are developed with a communicative methodology based on the idea of "learning by doing".

These summer courses are perfect for people who visit us between June and September, for at least two weeks, who want to advance faster in learning the Spanish language and culture and who can attend class every day, from Monday to Friday, for at least 3 hours a day.

On the course programme, in addition to the basic schedule from 9:00 to 12:30, optional classes are included from 12:30 to 13:30 to expand the knowledge of the Spanish and Valencian language and culture, conversation classes, or written and oral skills training to develop communication in one the four skills.

The Centre d'Idiomes UV also offers different social activities every week, in the afternoon, which take advantage of the city's cultural agenda so that students have the opportunity to practice Spanish with classmates and teachers.

Timetamble for basic + optional classes

Mornings

Classes	Timetables	Number	Content
Basic Spanish as a Foreign Language	9:00 - 11:00	3 hours	CEFR level Spanish class
	Break
	11:30 - 12:30
+ Extra skills	12:30 - 13:30	1 hour	Listening, reading, speaking and writing practice classes

Actual 15- or 20-hour programme per week with outdoor classes + social activities

Each student will have a course tutor with whom they can arrange tutoring. In addition, access to the Virtual Classroom of the University of Valencia allows you to have a direct connection with the tutor and with the course from home, while people who wish to do so, can receive more exercises and work to expand their knowledge.

Classes take place from Monday to Friday in the Language Centre of the University of Valencia building, located at Calle Serpis, 25. Every other Friday, outings are organized with the students to emblematic places in the city to carry out linguistic challenges adapted to their level and practice Spanish outside the classroom accompanied by their tutor.

Once or twice a week, social activities, cultural visits, and language activities are organized with peers and teachers in real settings outside school hours.

Materials and resources:

- Manual: Aula Plus Internacional, Editorial Difusión + online license
- Virtual Classroom of the University of Valencia (developed on the Moodle version 4.0 tool)
- Own materials and personalized tutor throughout the course.

Organization of courses and standards for promotion to the next CEFR level

The admission of new students will be made every Monday taking into account the level requested in the enrollment and the technical recommendation of the Spanish teaching team. If you have doubts about the group to which you can optionally join, you can take a complementary level test on the same Monday.

The student will be registered on a course of the appropriate level. This course may have started the contents of the corresponding manual weeks ago (unless the A1 is requested to start from scratch). Students who enter one level and are at the end of the contents of the manual will continue to study at the same level without moving on to the next until they can successfully pass the exam of the level in which they find themselves.

Whenever a student wants to promote to a higher level, they can take an exam on Friday that proves that they have the ability to start in a group at a higher CEFR level. It is recommended to complete most of the contents and follow the advice of the Spanish teacher and coordinator when signing up for the exam and promoting to the next level.

Calle Serpis, 25, 46022 Valencia, next to the Tarongers Campus of the University of Valencia.

Accommodation at the Colegio Mayor Rector Peset UV

The Colegio Mayor Rector Peset of the University of Valencia is located in the historic centre of the city. It is a residence for teachers and students that promotes the human, cultural and scientific training of its residents. It is located in a stately residence in the city, Palacio de Martínez Vallejo (18th century), which housed the School of Teaching until 1961. Later, in 1997, it was rehabilitated and adapted to its new university function. Some elements of interest have been preserved, such as a section of the Arab wall (11th century), the Miramar Tower (18th century), and the vault with a lantern dome (19th century) that crowns the main staircase. We can also see the mural painting "The impossible visit of Juan Peset" by Damián Flores made in 2007 on the occasion of the tenth anniversary of the School.

The Student Residence Rector Peset is managed directly by the University of Valencia and has 137 places for students in double and single rooms on full board; 92 places for teachers and researchers in double and single rooms, with en-suite bathrooms, and in any accommodation regime they wish.
